The ideal tool for reaching Wits students, Vuvuzela is distributed freely across all Wits campuses and most residences at lunch on Fridays during term.

Launched in 2004 by Wits Journalism, Vuvuzela is a regular feature of campus life and enjoys strong support. The newspaper commits to printing news that interests or affects the university community.

Celeb endorses #Access to education

WITS JOURNALISM has published a special feature on the #Access to Education campaign, which aims to provide financial support to students who are struggling to pay their tuition fees. The feature includes interviews with students and celebrities who have endorsed the campaign.

"They are students who are too poor to be rich and too rich to be poor"

It is a stark reality that many students at Wits struggle to pay their tuition fees. The #Access to Education campaign was launched to provide financial support to these students. The campaign has received widespread support from students, staff, and celebrities.

"The amount of funding is enough"

The amount of funding provided by the university is sufficient to support the needs of the students who are struggling to pay their tuition fees. The university has committed to providing financial support to these students until they are able to pay their fees.
